

WILSON SEEMS TO BE ELECTED

Latest Returns Show the President Far Ahead of His Opponent.

Governor Holcomb (Rep.), 192,056; Bearseley (Dem.), 98,012; Senator McLean (Rep.), 165,264; Cummings (Dem.), 97,847.

DELAWARE.

Returns at noon showed that Hughes carried Delaware by about 800.

Senator Dupont (Rep.) was defeated by Joseph B. Wolcott (Dem.) by 909 to 1000.

The voting for congress was close between representatives Miller and Albert F. Cook (Dem.) with the probability in favor of the former. The Republicans elected their state ticket with the possible exception of the candidate for attorney general.

FLORIDA.

Florida rolls up the customary Democratic pluralities, about 28,000.

GEORGIA.

The state gives the Democratic nominees the customary pluralities, about 48,000.

IDAHO.

Early today Idaho was conceded to Wilson, who had a lead of 4,000 votes out of a count of 45,000 votes from 224 of the most populous precincts of the state.

To fact that women voted this year in the state is attributed the fact that the normal Republican plurality of 20,000 to 25,000 has been reversed.

Over half of Idaho's vote when counted, gave Wilson 26,692 and Hughes 25,711. For governor, Moses Alexander, the Democratic incumbent, led with 22,945 against D. W. Davis, the Republican candidate, with 22,732.

ILLINOIS.

Indications at that Hughes will carry the state by 100,000 plurality. However, the Democrats are still claiming the state for Wilson.

Governor Dene (Dem.) has conceded his defeat for reelection.

In the city of Chicago Hughes piled up a strong lead, which the rest of the state could not seem to overcome.

The vote was very heavy. Women voted for the first time. They appeared to favor Hughes.

Illinois ran ahead of Wilson in Chicago.

HUGHES SMILES WHEN HE LEARS HE HAS CARRIED NEW YORK STATE

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Charles E. Hughes and his family received the election returns here tonight at the uptown hotel which has been the Republican headquarters since his nomination.

When the early returns began to come in, Mr. Hughes was asleep. He slept until 6:20 o'clock. Meantime the telegraph instruments in an adjoining room had been clicking for two hours and a sheet of telegrams, showing the trend in New York, was awaiting Mr. Hughes.

The first paper handed to him told of an announcement by a New York newspaper that he had carried New York state by 150,000 plurality.

Mrs. Hughes and their three daughters, the misses Catherine, Elizabeth and Helen, scanned the returns over Mr. Hughes's shoulder. Presently Charles E. Hughes, Jr. and his wife and Dr. Colin S. Carter, Mrs. Hughes's brother, entered the room.

Dinner was ordered, the first in months at which the entire family had been present.

Returns soon came in faster and dinner was neglected for a time to read them. A huge electric fan several blocks away flashing the returns from New York divided the family's attention with the telegraphic reports. They lingered at dinner until late and the group in the corridor opposite the telegraph room heard frequent outbursts of laughter.

At 9 o'clock Mrs. Hughes congratulated her husband on his election. She told him that he had been elected. Mr. Hughes's daughters also congratulated him.

Mr. Hughes gave out no statement. Later when a delegation with a band appeared beneath the hotel windows and sent the nearby throngs cheering out on the balcony, he went back to bed. He did not care to receive any ovation until he was certain that he had been elected.

857; Mansfield, (Dem.), 230,175. For senator, Lodge (Rep.), 244,416; Fitzgerald, (Dem.), 254,484.

The city of Boston went for Wilson, by a very narrow margin.

MICHIGAN. The plurality of Charles E. Hughes over Woodrow Wilson in Michigan amounted to nearly 25,000 this afternoon when returns from about one half of the state's precincts were counted.

Hughes's plurality was constantly growing and Republican leaders claimed he would carry Michigan by more than 40,000.

Returns from 1925 precincts including 57 of Wayne county, in which Detroit is located, gave Hughes 154,112 and Wilson 129,548.

The amendment for statewide prohibition, with 244 precincts in 41 counties heard from, had a majority of more than 15,000.

Albert E. Sleeper, Republican candidate for governor, leads. The election of the remainder of the Republican ticket was conceded.

T. S. Senator Chas. E. Townsend leads his Democratic opponent, Lawrence E. Egan.

The vote indicates a loss of more than 100,000 votes for the combined Taft and Roosevelt vote of 1912 to Wilson.

The sweeping victory of the prohibition forces was emphasized by today's returns. The majority for prohibition was more than 50,000 and a similar majority has been recorded against the home rule amendment.

MINNESOTA. Further inroads into Wilson's lead in Minnesota had been made by Hughes when nearly half the total precincts of the state had reported early this afternoon.

President Wilson's lead over Hughes in Minnesota gradually was being decreased this afternoon by returns from the rural sections of the state.

The majority for prohibition, 1399 precincts of a total of 10,254 Wilson had 120,080 votes to 112,146 for Hughes.

Returns from the rural districts, which were unusually slow in coming, gradually had cut down the lead established by the president.

Edgar, the Republican nominee for governor, wins. Most of the congressmen will be Republican, and the Republican increase their membership in both houses of the legislature.

NEW MEXICO. Early returns indicated a thorough Democratic victory. Indications are for the election of Jones to the senate, de Baca for governor, and a plurality of votes for Wilson.

Two fifths of the ballots were scratched. The count was very slow.

Democratic gains in most parts of the state, as compared with two years ago. In Santa Fe the fusion ticket was elected over the Republicans.

Three Rivers, senator Fall's home precinct, gave 49 Republican and 17 Democratic votes.

James (Dem.) for senator seems to have run ahead of his ticket.

NEW YORK. New York state gives Hughes a plurality of 100,000 or more and re-elected Gov. Whitman by an overwhelming vote. All the rest of the Republican state ticket won by large pluralities, including the candidate for United States senator.

Returns from all but 282 out of a total of 5,607 election districts, gave Hughes 524,412; Wilson 425,238, a Republican plurality of 101,174.

Gov. Whitman's plurality over his Democratic opponent, Samuel Seabury, with 525 districts remaining, is 132,225. The totals are: Whitman, 774,996; Seabury, 641,672.

William M. Calder, of Brooklyn, Republican candidate for United States senator, polled 83,353 votes against 508,712 for his opponent, Wm. F. McCombs, former chairman of the Democratic national committee. In the vote thus far tabulated, 1925 districts are missing.

Most of the missing districts are outside New York City. The city, complete, gave Wilson a plurality of 48,669. The president ran ahead of his ticket both in and out of New York City.

The New York delegations in the next national house of representatives as indicated will be: Republicans, 25; Democrats, 17, with one district still in doubt. In eight districts, however, the

DOÑA ANA GIVES HUGHES LEAD

Republicans Carry County by Pluralities Ranging from 377 to 582.

Las Cruces, N. M., Nov. 7.—Doña Ana county in the election yesterday gave a Republican plurality. The Republican candidates lead by majorities of from 399 to 600, it is claimed, with most of the candidates receiving about 500 more than their Democratic opponents.

This morning, J. Howard Wagner, candidate for state superintendent of public instruction, was leading the ticket with 614 plurality, with Salem, Rincon, Santa Teresa and Colorado precincts to hear from. Among the county candidates, Dr. R. E. McBrade, candidate for county school superintendent, led the ticket.

All of the precincts heard from early today gave Republican majorities except San Miguel and possibly Mesilla Park, as at that place the tickets were badly scratched, and it could not be determined which was leading.

Precinct 29 in Las Cruces went Republican by an average of about 100 and precinct No. 3 went Republican by about 50.

The Socialist ticket received five votes in precinct 20.

Republican candidates for state officials were leading, according to late returns today by pluralities ranging from 377 for Bureau for governor to 582 for attorney general. The Hughes plurality is 531, according to today's figures.

calling that he will have a majority of approximately 1500 votes.

The senate race between Pittman (Rep.), Flint (Rep.) and Miller (Dem.) is close.

NEW HAMPSHIRE. Indications early today were that the vote for the presidency was very close.

Returns from 253 out of 291 precincts gave Hughes 37,391; Wilson, 36,756. At the same hour the Republican state committee claimed that its figure indicated from 273 precincts showed a plurality of 1867 for Hughes.

New Hampshire normally piles up a Republican plurality of 20,000 or more.

NEW JERSEY. Hughes's plurality in New Jersey at 2:30 p. m. today was 28,565. The total vote, with 257 districts missing, gave Wilson 150,328; Hughes 119,534. Earlier returns, which appeared to give Hughes a lead of 20,000, showed a plurality of only 2158, proved to be an error, when a review of the figures was made. Hughes's plurality at that time was 21,112.

Wilson's voting district and home county went for Hughes.

In Princeton Wilson had a slight lead.

Frelinghuysen (Rep.) is elected senator over Martine (Dem.) the "administration" senator.

Edgar, the Republican nominee for governor, wins. Most of the congressmen will be Republican, and the Republican increase their membership in both houses of the legislature.

COUNTY VOTE IS NOT ALL SOLID

Democrats Get All Offices, But Republican Vote Causes Comment.

While the returns now being counted for El Paso county show a complete Democratic victory, great comment is expressed at the heavy Republican vote east. Of seventeen polls heard from at noon, Hughes had received a total of 941 votes, Wilson's being 1774. In the same precincts, J. A. Smith received 748 votes, Seth Orndorff winning with 1862. Smith ran much stronger than was expected.

Precinct 16 (El Paso Gas company) gave Hughes 88 and Wilson only 79, while precinct 28, the Smelter precinct, gave Wilson only 12 and Hughes 23.

Smith defeated Orndorff in the smelter district, setting 25, as against 11 for his opponent.

C. Wilson, 1222 Maroffin Ave., El Paso, says: "I suffered from pains through my back and attacks of this trouble would come on when I took cold. If I leaned sideways or stooped, I had sharp twinges. On more than one occasion, I was confined to bed for two or three days, unable to move. I attribute the cause of my kidney trouble to exposure and hardship in the Civil War. Doan's Kidney Pills gave me prompt relief." (Statement given February 2, 1907).
